WEDNESDAY, JULY 18, 1883.

WALLACE GRUERLE Editor
DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

For Governor—J. Parsons Knott, of Marion.
For Lt. Gov.—J. H. BROWN, of Adair.
For Attorney-General—P. W. HARVEY, of Moore.
For Auditor—FAYETTE BEWELL, of Hardin.
For Sheriff, Pub. Ind.—J. G. COOPER, of Fayette.
For State Auditor—G. C. COOPER, of Fayette.
For State Tax Collector—W. C. COOPER, of Fayette.

For Representative—Dr. E. R. PAXSON, of Fayette.

Judge HOWARD is cultivating a Forked path to Ohio this season.

Worthy and a friend are a couple whose offspring is usually murder.

Theirs is a peach-tree sort, if you want them in your garden in the maizey dances.

FRIEND GERHARD is welcome to the Jersey City, but for us, give us a Jersey town.

AS Englishman is fond of fooling for the tails of two dogs. He was diplomatic, so probably, at their suggestion.

A SSCRIBNER who asks, "Who will be the last man to perish when the world comes to an end?" The sheepleaser, of course.

The discoverer of Cincinnati is yet without a monument.—[This and That, Eh? Without a monument? O Lord! Then what do you call a long pen?]

C. COOK is a popular St. Louis pawn broker. It seems that the impudent patronize him in preference to any other when they want "to raise the wind."

The man in love is very apt to become absent-minded. He is always for getting his girl.—[D. Woods, Yes, and some times for getting a divorce after marriage.]

The parents of a Virginia girl kept her under lock and key for twenty-two months to prevent her marrying a preacher. He is a probably a poor preacher—poor in this world's goods.

Why is the use of examining Col. Morris' anti-slavery record? The man goes will vote for him because a man, even were it proved that he favored their being remanded into slavery.

JACK WHEAT was badly beaten up at a Wayne county horse dance, the other day, by Ben Brinkley, in an alteration about a young woman, who one proudly boasts that Ben is the champion Wheat wrestler.

At Galena, Ill., Sunday, Mr. Harry Mint, of this city, was married to Miss Julietta Farn, of St. Louis. Report says, "That's all right." It was said that Dan Capid was treating Hyacinth a Mint Julep.

COR. MONROE proclaims that "for twenty years past we have been the most popular party in the nation." We know what it is—such democratic papers as the Louisville Post are always sneaking.

SIR, as far as I am known to be, the most modest, and in our book, most kindly reader d.d. Pray that her novels are not also similarly sealed from the reading public.

A MAN from Louisville in a May 1, in the starting headlines of a long article in the New York Times, naturally supposing Tom Brady had stolen the sleek's clod-hopper, and in our book, most kindly reader d.d. Pray that her novels are not also similarly sealed from the reading public.

An enthusiastic democratic contemplator says that nothing can be more certain than that Iowa will go democratic this year. That's fact. Iowa is just as certain to go democratic in its fall election as Kentucky is to go republican at the August election.

TICK candidates for governor are pretty evenly matched, but the democrats, the unionists, speakers, and the like, that can not ascertain could probably find it interesting to witness a match game of baseball between the Goose Creek and Duck Barnines?

OUR towards the embryo people say heavily, whether they have ever seen one before or not.—[Don Patman. All your psonades, old fellow, must extend due east from your office, through a street where the folks are mighty familiar on a short acquaintance.

JONES GAXTER is the name of a Spencer county (Indiana) youth who first met, wooed, and married a girl, one day last week, all in two hours time. "Willya on the face, all the years since, and a feller that way you knowed nothing," he said, "which a name too? asked an astonished squire. "Behave I'm a goose, I swear," was the bride's reply.

The Hayesville Democrat believes in two editors, one of whom earnestly supports the democratic nominee for the legislature in one column, while in an adjoining column the other editor, who is an alleged "independent" candidate against the regular democrat, as earnestly supports his own claim, endeavoring to reflect the arguments advanced by his colleagues in the nomination, and takes the record of the unfortunate standard bearer for ore and salt. Just at this perilous conjuncture the Democrat is quite the funniest paper in the world. By the way, we notice that some of our countrymen are continuing Bob Bush in antagonizing the democratic party. They do them a good many injustice. He can't help himself. He's bound to run for an office this year. His family is in medical distress for him by Dr. Jack Bowler, who says his political system requires that sort of treatment every now and then. He is in a hole in which he has dug himself. He is determined to triumph at the polls, we are confident that his astoundment therewith would be sufficient to supersede all sense of apoplexy. So, here goes the countrymen.

He has his little tree in peace; he can not injure himself, and will not jeopardize the chances of the regular democrat. That's all. He is a good man, but he has either. O ye manipulators of the Archimedean lever, he is no one who would be of any use. May he to him, "Vitam non sum

SHORTSIGHTED LOUISVILLE

There is no city on the continent possessed more of all the qualities of the last or more from Louisville. Occupying the greatest area in America for a great city—a water power unsurpassed, while the southwest to draw prosperity and wealth from, commanding both water and railway ways, to the market of the east, north west and south. Louisville is the second largest city in the country, and makes it one of the most populous and thriving cities in America. One thing! by George she has several things—liberality, enterprise and getupandgo. Let any man or company enter in gates and propose an enterprise that would do any good to its business, and it would be welcomed with open arms. It is really looks to an amateur as if all the men in the town belonged to him or it. If an enterprising manufacturer goes there and wants to get a lot upon which to erect a factory or other buildings necessary to his enterprise, probably he would be given a personal loan from the bank for his enterprise, and in his instance some years ago, when a cotton manufacturer from the south came there for the purpose of establishing a large cotton cloth factory. He had all the necessary machinery, but needed assistance to purchase, lease or erect the necessary buildings. The cotton dealer, the day before, had wired him from the state and his friends anxious in view of his knowledge of his own fitness of foot, halting by the way to take a nap, and get so far advance upon his project as to overtake and pass him. By booking him much on our known strength, by attaching two more importance to past majesty, by convincing ourselves with the unwavering confidence of the future, we can exhibit it to the country fair as an ox. General Williams is the ambitious and courageous frog of Kentucky politics. Only that, and nothing more.

We can not afford, either by indifference or overmuch confidence, to jeopardize his election. While we may have permanently wrested the country from the enemy, yet our majority is not so overwhelming that it may not become endangered by our own inaction. The opposition is thoroughly organized, and it is time for the evaluation of mediocrity, for the uplifting of such cheap boasting blowers as John S. Williams. Because an ignorant, loud-mouthed blatherskite thirsts for office is no argument that he merits it. Because an ambitious frog says he will self-evidently succeed in his enterprise, does not mean why one should sit ring in his nose and exhibit it to the country fair as an ox. General Williams is the ambitious and courageous frog of Kentucky politics. Only that, and nothing more.

We learn from the Henderson Reporter that Mr. James N. Banks has purchased an interest in the Henderson News, which has just entered upon the twenty-second year of its publication. The News is one of the best and most popular papers in the state, and Mr. Banks an intelligent, industrious, and most promising young editor. We wish Uncle Ben and his partner all success and prosperity.

With in that exalted body, as farmers or any body speaks "half a dozen" or "fourty, speaking nothing." This is a fine ring of words, but it is a low down upon the country. The people are all the best, and the men are the most intelligent and industrious representatives. He will be found always at his post. He will not shrink from or shirk any labor that may be imposed upon him by his constituents. He will represent the county well, wisely, and faithfully.

We can not afford, either by indifference or overmuch confidence, to jeopardize his election. While we may have permanently wrested the country from the enemy, yet

our majority is not so overwhelming that it may not become endangered by our own inaction. The opposition is thoroughly organized, and it is time for the evaluation of mediocrity, for the uplifting of such cheap boasting blowers as John

S. Williams. Because an ignorant, loud-mouthed blatherskite thirsts for office is no argument that he merits it.

Because an ambitious frog says he will self-evidently succeed in his enterprise, does not mean why one should sit ring in his nose and exhibit it to the country fair as an ox. General Williams is the ambitious and courageous frog of Kentucky politics. Only that,

and nothing more.

"ASTONISHMENT! ASTONISHMENT!"

Is the Universal remark heard in our

CARPET DEPARTMENT.

Ladies wonder how it is that we can sell CARPETS, OIL-CLOTHS, MATTINGS, RUGS MATS, LACE CURTAINS, CORNICE, POLES, in fact everything pertaining to House-furnishing at such tremendous LOW PRICES. The secret is, our WHOLESALE DEPARTMENT enables us to buy in very large quantities direct from the manufacturer, thus saving the jobbers' profit. We pay cash for all we buy, thus making the advantage of all discounts. Seeing is believing, and the great rush that throngs our store-room daily only verifies that OUR PRICES ARE LOWER THAN THE LOWEST.

Mrs. Lou Moorman and daughter, Miss Sabine, are at Mr. J. D. Babbage's, who was called on account of her mother's illness.

LOCAL BREVIETIES.

Hotter—hotter—hot to say it!

The farmers have nothing to complain of this year.

County court business at Hardinsburg Monday was suspended.

Evening news except us—was out today during Sunday afternoon.

B. F. Beard was busy all day Monday paying out the school money.

Miss Mata Rose, of Union Star was a passenger down on the Rainbow last Saturday.

We were saluted by several farmers at Hardinsburg last week, who was the agent here for the Fall City woolens.

Mr. H. W. Hammon, OWENSBY, Ky., says: "Brown's Iron Bitter, cured me of stomach trouble and indigestion."

Dr. W. R. White's new house is ready for the plasterer, and will, when done, add greatly to the looks of Frankfort.

About a dozen "mudcats" left for Louisburg, via the Falls of the Rainbow. They said they could not make anything at the wagons paid.

Mr. Louis Greenwell & Co. have opened out a furniture store in the "brick corner," on the hill above the "brick corner." Mike says he wishes there were two or three more.

Mr. C. N. Barnfield, from Owenton, is passing a quiet summer at Hardinsburg for saving hickory-bottomed all kinds. It is located on the hills, at the edge of town.

Mr. Theo. J. Thompson, of Bowleyville, and Mr. Dan Jones, of Maysville, left for Kansas, on Monday last, with a carload of fine cattle, which they propose putting on the market early.

The copartnership between Messrs. J. H. Fleming of Henderson, and J. E. Keith of this city, in the marble business, has been dissolved, Mr. Keith withdrawing.

Mr. Dan Basinger, who was in prison such a length of time, for the hanging of his son, for murdering Davis Crawford, of this county, was a passenger on the Gulf Line.

Plain dealer on the bank, but we would prefer machinery arriving to manufacture our fine trailers. Cloverport will never be any thing but a village until she has some manufactures more.

There has been a loud ringing call from several "Cowheads" citizens for the marshals to arrest him, and the marshals to march him to Frankfort, and the dogs whose midnight yells disturbed the sleepers of the city.

The killing of a scoundrel at Louisville last Tuesday the 10th instant, resulted in the killing of Mr. Robert Dean, formerly of this county, and another of the best men of the community, and also of one of the best and most able men of this city. He left a wife, a widowed mother, and several children.

The hard wind and rain storms that have swept this section of country for some time passed over on last Thursday and Friday night. A great many trees were uprooted and broken. It came near hitting the tin roof from Sheriff Mooreman's residence on Washington.

One of the last one of the attacks of the dogs received from a beautiful young lady visitor, a frequent and most delicate flower of the city, was a dog named "Puff," which I had caused the guard to chill since it was here, it has been visiting us, and a case of "blue" is something I heard of no square.

STORY CHURCHES.

This is probably the leading humor paper of America, if not of the world. There is more food for laughter in one issue than many so-called funny papers. Its stories are not only spirited, but new and full of life. We are pleased to learn that it is securing a large subscription for its new edition. This is as it should be.

Mr. Eddie Greenwell & Co. have opened up a new furniture store in one of the buildings in the Boarding house, on Main street, between Elm and West. These young gentlemen are doing a very good business, and are most favorable prospects. They are intelligent, enterprising, and are likely to succeed.

Mr. W. T. Miller has his pile-driver, in position on the terminus of the railroad, where he soon begin driving the piles on which is built the new bridge across the Kentucky river, progressing quite slowly. Very few teams will allow their teams to work, on account of the severity of the work, and intense heat of the weather.

Doctor Cooper, while digging for gold on his place in Greenup county, near Bowleyville, found a barrel of gunpowder about sixty feet, when all at once the barrel fell out of the hole and the earth and stones dropped to an unusual depth. A black horse, which had been captured a couple of hundred feet in length, was found dead, the body, but did not succeed in finding him.

Rev. Mr. Nonce, who was announced to preach here on Sunday was sick, and preached two of his own diseases. He made an impression here that our people will listen to for some time. He made an impression here that our people will listen to any time to our must.

According to Mr. Nonce, he will be here on August 1st, to preach Mr. Cass, of Hawesville.

Mr. Dorsey Beeler of New Frankfort, Sonora, Mo., and father Mr. John D. Beeler, of Frankfort, died on his home July 8, in the 60th year of his age, of apoplexy. He was taken sick on Saturday evening, and died on Sunday morning. His death was sudden and unexpected.

United States Senator Beck and his wife will spend the summer at Crab Orchard.

Walnut logs large numbers being shipped from Georgetown to Germany.

Fast, brilliant and fashionable are the Diamond Eye colors. One package will do a good deal of damage to meadow and growing corn.

Carter's Little Liver Pills will positively cure sick headache and prevent its return. This is not talk, but truth. One pill a day will be of great service.

To be had of all druggists. See advertisement.

We are pleased to learn that your young friend Mr. Ross W. Wilson, agent for our company, has come to Bowleyville Seminary. Mr. Woods is one of the most accomplished and painstaking educators in the country. He has had a glorious success in his chosen avocation. The people of Bowleyville are to be congratulated on the arrival of fortune in retaining him for the next year.

—Sunday morning at 6 o'clock.

On Sunday, June 25, 1853, at the approach of the Civil War, the people of George- town were in a state of alarm and consternation. Mrs. Mary Strook aged about 100, deceased but suffered long and greatly, but bore her afflictions with great fortitude. She was a true Christian, and the beloved death as a happy release from her sufferings. She was a woman of great character and a lady whom sweet and amiable disposition won the love and admiration of all who knew her. Her funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church and a large number of persons attended.
